Will crown the efforts of the firm whose motto is "special favors to none"—selling goods as represented and at the same price to all buyers—not devoting an iota from the quoted prices. Space will not permit the mention of our many brands of Wines and Liquors—all of which are good—suffice it to call your attention this week to the brand, the crowning quality of which has caused it to radiate throughout Virginia—in fact, the entire country—till it has reached its acme in the beverage world. With these few remarks we place before you our celebrated

CASES CONTINUED.

Because the plaintiff declared he was accustomed to do mental work in a recumbent position and sitting upright in a witness chair had fatigued him, the case of John Armstrong Chanler, who is fighting for legal establishment of his sanity and recovery of a fortune he claims was wrested from him in New York, was yesterday at Charlottesville, continued until Monday, November 30.

The hearing has been going on several days. Mr. Chanler said he desired a rest after three days of mental strain on the witness stand and this was agreed upon at a conference of lawyers.

Joseph H. Choate, jr., counsel for Thomas T. Sherman, Chanler's sanity "committee," against whom Chanler brought the suit, left yesterday for New York after appointing local lawyers to look after Sherman's interests.

The story of how he cut off his French beard because Amelle Rives had refused him and what he characterized as ill-bred conduct toward him by members of the Knickerbocker Club, of New York, including Stanford White, sculptor of the Gaudens and others were brought out in the testimony last Saturday. Chanler testified in the legal proceedings to establish his sanity and recover a fortune he alleges was wrested from him in New York.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because they don't say anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THE STOLEN LETTER.

The John D. Archbold Standard Oil letters, which William R. Hearst has presented to the public during the present campaign, were stolen from the Archbold files by a negro in Mr. Archbold's office and sold by him to the Hearst papers through a white man, a confidential messenger of the Standard Oil Company, according to an article in Collier's Weekly for October 24. The negro and the white man are said to have made a traffic over $12,000 out of transaction.

The white man, in his interview with the writer for Colliers, hints that the best of the letters are yet to be used—and that these which have been held in reserve have to do with Senator Aldrich and Senator Penrose.

One of the men who it is alleged got the letters for Mr. Hearst is William W. Winfield, colored, file clerk, messenger and doorman in Mr. Archbold's office and stepson of Mr. Archbold's negro butler, James N. Wilkens, who has been in Mr. Archbold's family for 30 years. Winfield had been in the Standard Oil office 10 years, when he was dropped in 1905.

The other man was Charles Stamp, white, in the Standard Oil office for six years, when he, too, was dropped in 1905.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

COLD WAVE.

A storm accompanied by rain which changed frequently to snow has prevailed throughout the northern section of Colorado for nearly 48 hours. In sections of the mountains heavy snow has fallen. Considerable damage was done to the electric wires and telephone and telegraph wires are seriously affected. Railroad and interurban electric lines have been interrupted and at places completely blocked.

Several accidents and at least one death have resulted from persons coming in contact with broken wires.

Six accidental deaths are traceable to the snow. Besides seven persons sustained serious injuries in railroad collisions and in coming in contact with live wires.

A cold wave has added misery to the 2,000 people of northern Michigan made homeless by forest fires. The thermometer dropped 20 degrees since yesterday morning.

FOR CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

"While in the army in 1883 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Miles, of this place, persuaded me to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, one bottle of which stopped it at once." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Company and Richard Gibson.

BILLIK TO HANG.

The refusal yesterday of the U. S. Supreme Court to act in the case of Herman Billik, of Chicago, brings to an end one of the most notable struggles ever made in the history of American jurisprudence to save the life of a condemned man. Billik, indicted two years ago for the murder of five members of the Venz family, was tried on one indictment and convicted of the murder of Mary Venz. Sentence of the court was that he should hang. Billik was without money and for a time it seemed that he would be hanged because of the lack of funds to carry out the sentence. Billik had been in his cell many weeks when Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, of the Paulist Fathers, after a visit to the prisoner, became convinced of the latter's innocence and began a fight for his release. Mass meetings were held at the instigation of the priest and funds were collected with which to carry the case to the Supreme Court of Illinois. Governor Deneen granted a reprieve, which saved Billik from the gallows pending a decision by the Supreme Court.

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE.

Only a few moments after Edward McDonald had died from a bullet wound at his father's home, in New York, nineteen-year-old Nellie Walsh Waldron, of Flushing, who says the dead man had wronged her, yesterday afternoon rushed to the Greenpoint ferry and leaped into the East river. She was quickly rescued. The young woman, who had sought death soon after her former sweetheart died, was having a severe nervous breakdown. She said she took a revolver along. At the house she found him alone. When she tried to carry out her threat, she said, he snatched the revolver from her hand and fired a shot into his own brain.
